

OPERA

BY DISGUISE

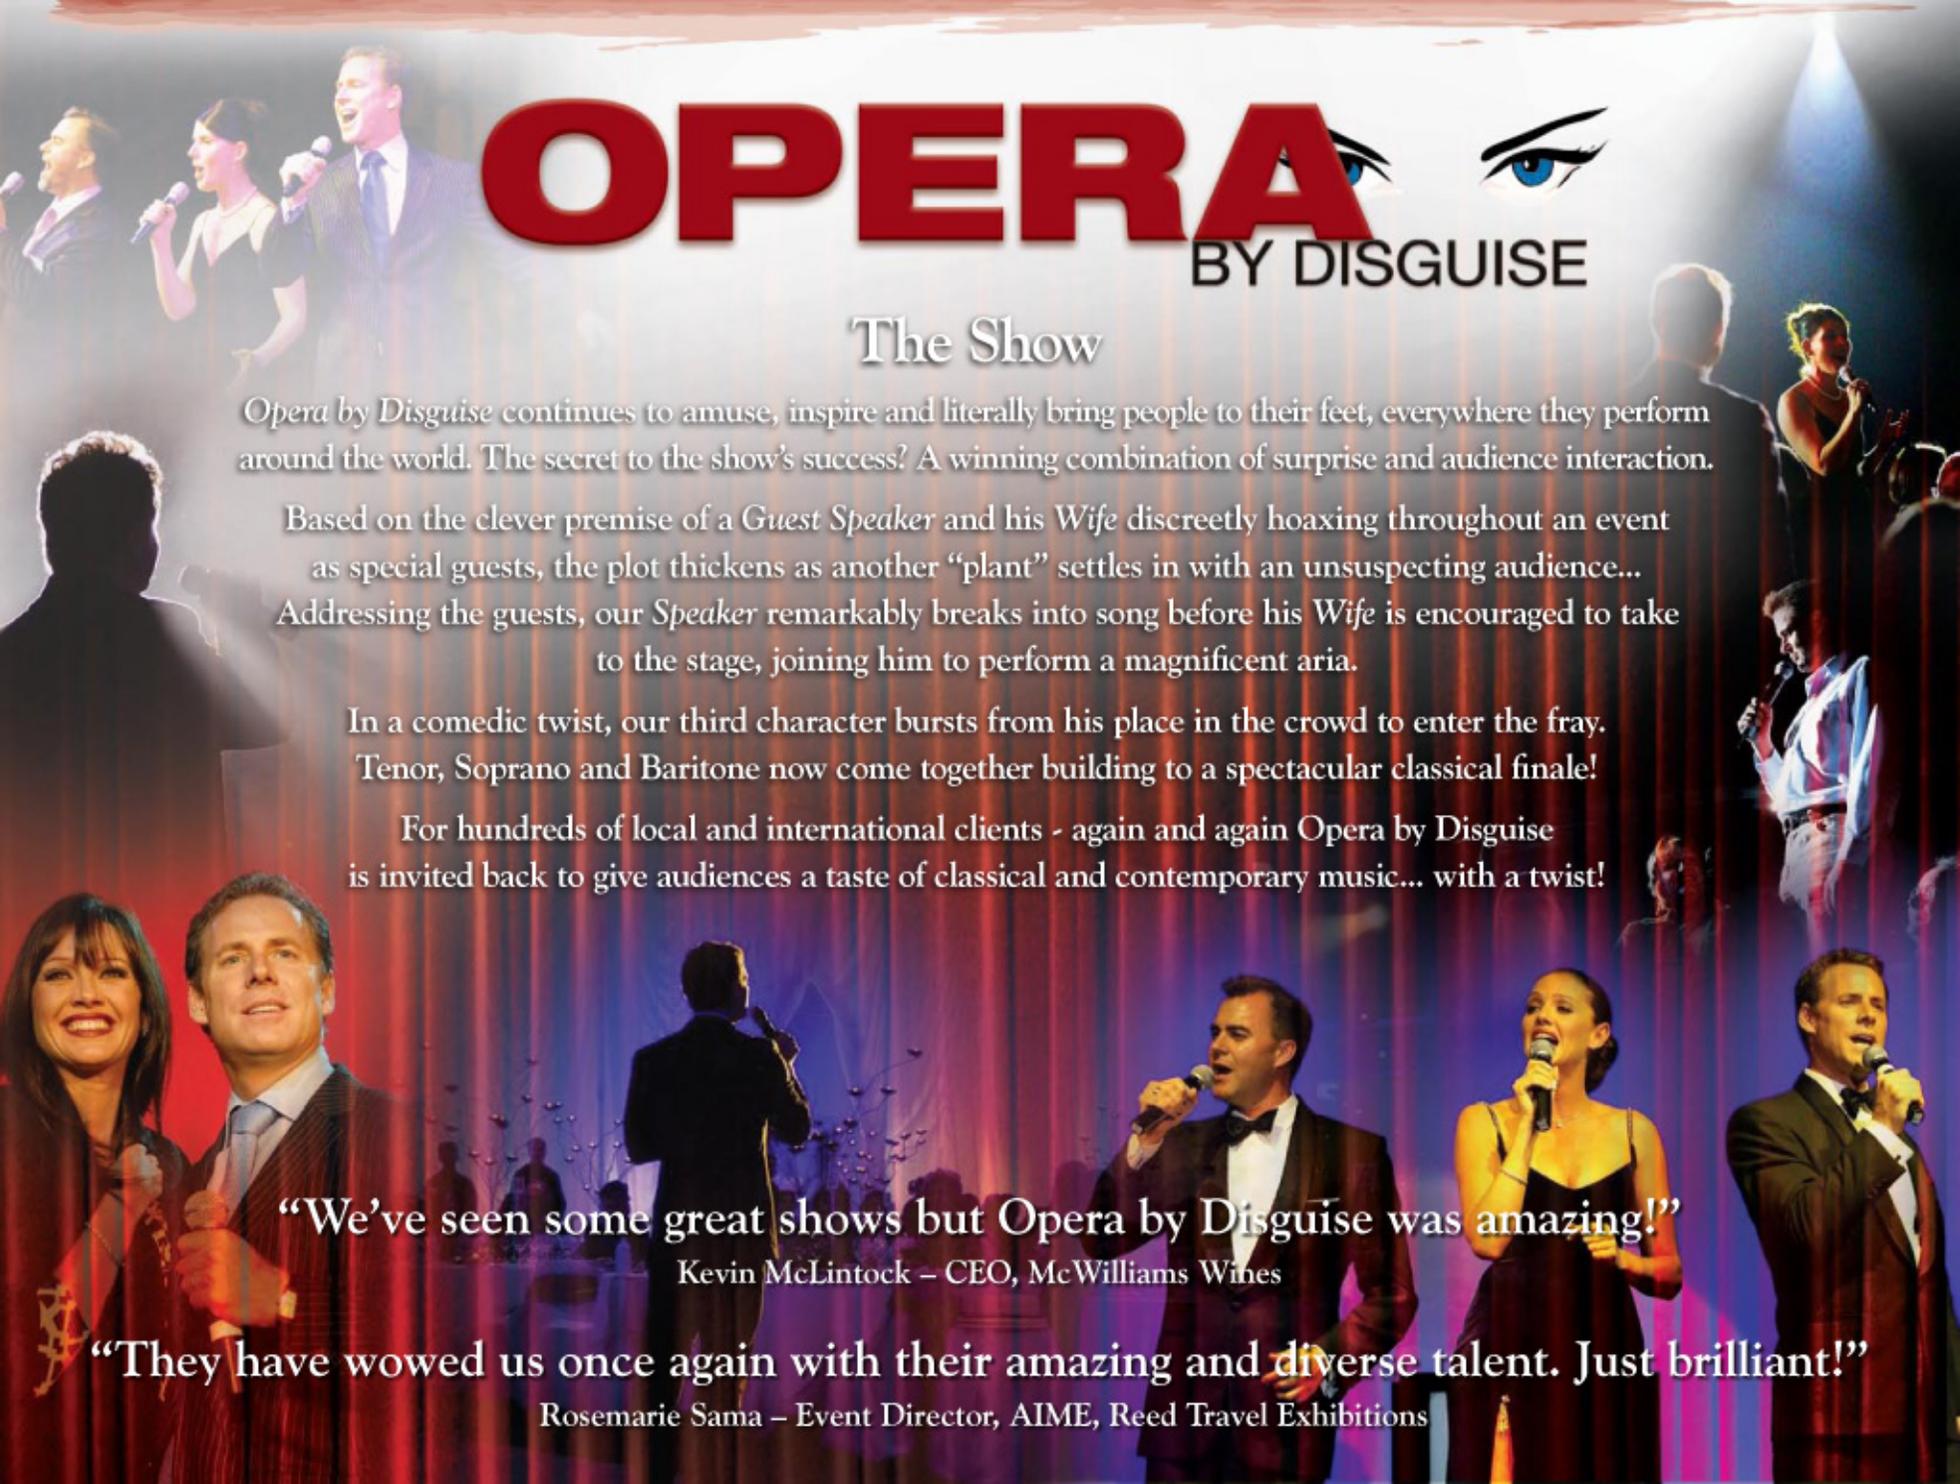

The Show

Opera by Disguise continues to amuse, inspire and literally bring people to their feet, everywhere they perform around the world. The secret to the show's success? A winning combination of surprise and audience interaction.

Based on the clever premise of a Guest Speaker and his Wife discreetly hoaxing throughout an event as special guests, the plot thickens as another "plant" settles in with an unsuspecting audience... Addressing the guests, our Speaker remarkably breaks into song before his Wife is encouraged to take to the stage, joining him to perform a magnificent aria.

In a comedic twist, our third character bursts from his place in the crowd to enter the fray. Tenor, Soprano and Baritone now come together building to a spectacular classical finale!

For hundreds of local and international clients - again and again Opera by Disguise is invited back to give audiences a taste of classical and contemporary music... with a twist!

"We've seen some great shows but Opera by Disguise was amazing!"

Kevin McLintock – CEO, McWilliams Wines

"They have wowed us once again with their amazing and diverse talent. Just brilliant!"
