

The Players

Playing the hits, and playing your crowd!

Fresh for 2013 SMA Productions brings you a band that combines a high octane performance with refined showmanship and the meticulous attention to detail that SMA is renowned for.

Fresh, talented, young and hip 'The Players' are made up of in demand professional musicians and performers who have toured internationally, gracing the stages of over 32 countries between them. These highly credentialed performers are second to none.

With a wealth of experience and charm our front line make sure you really feel part of the show, and 'The Players' singers know how to connect with your audience as well as blow them away with precision vocals.

Masters of their craft, this band doesn't deliver sets, they deliver a show! Be prepared for slick moves, knock out lead singers and musicians that look as sharp as they sound.

Playing hit after hit to ensure your dance floor remains grooving, 'The Players' have an extensive repertoire that caters to every event. From current chart toppers to classic dance floor anthems your event is guaranteed to be 'Sign Sealed Delivered' in an extraordinary way.

As the band of choice for renowned concert and corporate shows The Diamonds, Boys in the Band, and The Rat Packs Back, 'The Players' become the ultimate package for any event organiser.
